COFFEE WITH A CONSCIENCE

The 'BYO' coffee cups, $10.95, were designed to function just like the takeaway versions but with longer, eco-friendly lifespans: they can be reused for many brews. Visit www.hookturnindustries.com.au, for stockists details.

BAGS OF FUN

A trip to the shops just got a whole lot more funky with the Epoch 'Salesgirl' canvas bag, $39.50. Call 0433 344 332 or visit www.epochdesign.com.au.

Danish Delight

The rice homewares collection from Denmark will bring bursts of colour and a feminine touch to any kitchen shelf. The range includes ceramic dipping bowls, teapot sets and melamine cups, all very quirky. Visit www.kek.com.au or call (02) 6655 1116 for your nearest stockist.

IN A SCRAPE

You can't beat the new 'Donna Hay Signature Edition BEM800' mixer, $549.95, from Breville. It comes with an innovative 'scraper beater' that folds the ingredients and repeatedly scrapes the sides and bottom of the bowl, ensuring an even mix. Available from the Donna Hay General Store and website, www.donnahay.com, or David Jones nationwide, 13 33 57.

BOOKS

The Crafty Minx ($39.95, Murdoch Books) Kelly Doust's clever book includes over 75 projects and is written for those who need a little help mastering a needle and thread but still love the idea of making their own craftwork.
My Greek Family Table by Maria Benardis ($59.95, Penguin Australia) The founder of Sydney's Greekalicious cooking school, Maria Benardis, has released her first cookbook. Among the 100 recipes, tested by many generations, are family photos and stories.
